Possible Supporting Courses

Art Department Studio Courses
Archaeology
Philosophy
Literature
History
Bible and Theology
Cross register at area institution
Cross disciplinary support class
Study abroad program

Note: The double major Philosophy and Art History requires that supporting courses include PHIL 243, 245, 311, 312, 454 or 455 and 494

Fulfilling CORE Bible requirements with ARCH 211 or ARCH 213 is highly recommended

The Alternate Program of Study enables more flexibility for an art history major to supplement their major with work in other departments or beyond Wheaton. It is especially useful for students seeking to double major, as supporting courses applied to an art history major can count towards different majors as well.
