Apartments for single graduate and international or Colson Scholar married students are assigned on a first-come, first-served basis as applications are received. Space is limited. Applications are accepted from potential students, but students must be confirmed by the Graduate Admissions Office in order to officially accept a campus housing offer. All apartments are furnished. For more information about graduate housing, please visit www.wheaton.edu/reslife.

Applications may be submitted on or after the first day of classes the semester preceding desired occupancy.
