

C.S. Lewis Library

Background Information

The majority of the Lewis Library was acquired from Wroxton College in 1986, where it had been in use by the patrons of the college library. Other titles have been given by C.S. Lewis's friends and associates to the Wade Center.

Related Materials

1. The Lewis Library Inserts Archive contains items that were found between the pages of the books in C.S. Lewis' personal library. A list and photocopies of some of the handwritten annotations in the books are also included.
2. "C.S. Lewis: A Living Library" by Margaret Anne Rogers is a thesis written about the Lewis library collection while it was at Wroxton College.
3. From the Library of C.S. Lewis: Selections from Writers who Influenced his Spiritual Journey, edited by James Bell, is an anthology of excerpts from books in Lewis's library.

Requesting Books

On-Site use only; Reading Room Appointment with 24-hour notice required.

To request materials from the C.S. Lewis Library, please provide Kilby Reading Room staff with a list of authors and titles.

For bolded entries, please provide the title or bolded author and title.

For titles with multiple copies, please provide disambiguating information, such as year of publication, publisher, or copy number.

Key:

SIGNED: Indicates the book contains a signature written by someone known to be associated with Lewis or with the title. Books containing signatures of previous owners not known to have any association with Lewis or his family are not marked. If multiple signatures are present in the book, multiple designations will be present in the list.

UNDR: An * indicates that there is underlining in the book.

ANT: An * indicates that the book has been annotated. An annotation is considered a full sentence of text or more that is directly related to the content of the book.

MAR: An * indicates that the book has marginalia. Marginalia are defined as markings within the text comprising of less than a full sentence throughout the text, such as “?” or “!”. A “D” indicates that the book includes a Reading Date. An “I” indicates that a book includes an inscription of some sort, such as a presentation inscription or location, usually accompanying the signature and independent of the text of the book.

Bolded text: Indicates the book is shelved by title

To see more information about the placement and amount of markings in each book, follow the hyperlink at each title to view the title in the Wade Center’s online catalog. The Local Note will provide details on the marked pages.

This listing is owned by the Wade Center and is not to be duplicated or deposited in another institution without written permission from the Wade Center. It is a working draft and complete accuracy is not guaranteed.
